

Links for Post Harvest Handling Equipment

Water Tanks

Available for purchase at most local farm stores.

Ice Machine

Barr Refrigeration in Oshkosh, Wisconsin, www.barrinc.com, has used ice machines available. For new machines, a local installer may be the best option.

Mesh Bags

The mesh bags in use by the farms I visited were 24" by 36" mesh laundry bags; these are widely available at discount stores such as Target, or Bed, Bath, and Beyond.

Plastic bulb trays

Plastic bulb trays are sourced from nursery wholesalers, usually in the winter after the sales of fall bulbs.

Washing machines to dry

Sourced locally from appliance dealers, who seem to have this sort of thing laying around.

Elbow-length gloves

Dynamic Salad Spinner

Johnny's Selected Seeds www.Johnnyseeds.com

Also available from local restaurant supply houses.

Plastic Banquet Tables

Most farms visited had purchased these at large office supply chains. Eight-foot tables do not seem to be readily available through mail order.

Broccoli Bander

I was unable to find sources for these, but expect them to be available used through trade journals.
